

STORAGE TENT PLUS 650 FR CL | 8212 5260

Premium Coating. Premium Confidence.
Enhanced Strength for High-End Structures.

There are environments where nothing can shift – not the walls, not the seams, not even the smallest detail. In these demanding settings, storage tent plus 650 FR CL shows what true stability looks like. Its calendered structure forms a dense, unwavering material that holds its shape under stress and time. Weather rolls off its glossy surface, flames meet certified resistance, and seams lock together with precision.

It's a material not just built for tents – but for permanence in temporary places.
