AIRTEX® OUTDOOR 450 FR | 7215 5947

Textile look, durable performance for modern outdoor structures. Lightweight FR fabric for creative, customisable tent designs.

airtex® outdoor 450 FR provides outdoor structures with a naturally refined textile appearance without compromising on durability. Its lightweight feel makes it easy to handle and shape, while the PVC coating provides the robustness required for long-term outdoor use. The fabric's print-friendly lacquer allows for customised designs, which are often used in glamping or small tent structures where individuality matters.

It maintains a clean, consistent look that supports creative styling and practical performance in everyday camping environments.
