

CAMPING ROOF 680 | H5515-B970

High-opacity roof fabric with reflective silver coating.
Strong, stable roofing for long-term camping comfort.

camping roof 680 features a robust, high-opacity roof material designed for long-term camping structures. Its silver-lacquered top side improves heat reflection, helping to keep the interior of the tent noticeably cooler and more comfortable. The fabric welds cleanly and evenly, maintaining a stable, tidy surface over extended periods outdoors.

With its strong resistance to sun, rain, wind and daily use, it provides a reliable, clean-looking roofing solution for camping environments that require durability and consistent performance.
